RC NMIMS' ASMSOC Event List

1. Year 2020-21

Activity 1: FunScape

Date: 10th February, 2021

RC NMIMS' ASMSOC hosted FUNSCAPE, an extraordinary initiative that brought people together for a heartwarming experience. The event aimed to connect with the wonderful souls at Advitya, an NGO dedicated to nurturing individuals affected by Down Syndrome. Participants engaged in various activities, including games like "Spot the Difference," "Simon Says," and "Odd One Out." These activities not only fostered fun and joy but also encouraged interaction and bonding among the attendees.

The event concluded on a musical high note, with Rotaractors showcasing their musical talents to spread smiles and elevate everyone's spirits. FUNSCAPE was a unique and compassionate event, highlighting the importance of quality time and connection, especially with those who face unique challenges. It exemplified the power of bringing joy and positivity to the lives of individuals at Advitya through games, music, and heartfelt interactions.

Activity 2: Stray Strong

Date: 10th to 30th September, 2020

In collaboration with Paws Hunger, RC NMIMS' ASMSOC initiated a commendable 20-day-long community service project, which took place from September 10th to September 30th. The primary objective was to extend a helping hand to stray animals residing in the neighbourhoods, especially during the challenging times of the pandemic. The project's scope was extensive, encompassing essential provisions such as food, medical healthcare, and more for these vulnerable animals. A significant aspect of this initiative was its practicality, enabling participants to contribute from the safety and comfort of their homes, making it a truly community-driven endeavour.

In addition to the vital aspect of feeding strays, the initiative also included the distribution of reflective collars and vaccinations, further enhancing the welfare of stray animals across the country. This initiative exemplified the power of collective efforts and empathy, providing much-needed support to the often overlooked and underserved community of stray animals.

Activity 3: Period Power

Date: 14th February, 2021

RC NMIMS' ASMSOC successfully organized the second edition of "Period Power 2.0" on February 14, 2021, in Mumbai, specifically in the slums of Wadala and Nehru Nagar. The event served a vital purpose in promoting menstrual hygiene and providing essential support to underprivileged women.

The initiative was marked by the distribution of over 300 sanitary napkins, a valuable contribution that aimed to address the pressing needs of women in these underserved communities. This act of generosity and awareness on Valentine's Day was a testament to spreading love and empowerment through knowledge.

The event underscored the significance of education and awareness, striving to improve the quality of life and hygiene for women facing economic constraints. "Period Power 2.0" highlighted the positive impact that collective efforts and empathy can have on the well-being of marginalized communities, exemplifying the spirit of compassion and support within RC NMIMS' ASMSOC.

2. Year 2021-22

Activity 1: NAAZ

Event Date: 28th June, 2023

"It takes courage to grow up and be who you really are," a poignant quote that echoed the essence of self-acceptance and authenticity, set the tone for an exciting event hosted by RONMIMS' ASMSOC. This initiative, aptly named NAAZ, featured a special Instagram Live session. The event proudly welcomed Prince Manvendra Singh Gohil, not only a royal figure but also an openly gay advocate for LGBTQIA+ rights. He led the Lakshya Trust, a charitable organization that supported the LGBTQIA+ community.

In addition to Prince Manvendra, the event hosted Yash Sharma, the founder of "Official Humans of Queer," and Muhammad Burhan, a dedicated student and activist passionate about uplifting and empowering others. This Instagram Live promised a lively and insightful discussion, providing a platform to hear from these influential figures within the LGBTQIA+ community, who made a significant impact by embracing their authentic selves and advocating for a more inclusive world.

3. Year 2022-23

Activity 1: NMIMS' ASMSOC Model United Nations (MUN)

Event Date: 3rd & 4th March, 2023

NMIMS' ASMSOC Model United Nations is an educational and academic simulation of diplomatic decision-making, providing a mock replica of the United Nations with the goals of furthering understanding of the UN, educating participants about world issues, and promoting peace and the UN's work through cooperation and diplomacy. NMIMS ASMSOC MUN 2.0 had three committees with different agendas: the United Nations Security Council (UNSC), the All India Political Parties Meet (AIPPM), and the United Nations Commission on the Status of Women (UNCSW), discussing topics such as the militarisation and armament of the Arctic, the implementation of the Uniform Civil Code, and violence against women during crises and post-disaster rehabilitation. The conference successfully fulfilled its goals of promoting peace and understanding of world issues through cooperation and diplomacy, providing a platform for young individuals to learn about international affairs and develop their skills in diplomacy, negotiation, and leadership, making it a rewarding and enriching experience for all those involved.

Activity 2: Nirvana

Event Date: 3rd August 2022

The intention behind organizing this event was to address the mental health issues faced by Mumbai Police officers who deal with various challenging cases on a daily basis. Recognizing their overlooked mental well-being, we collaborated with "Adding Colors to Lives," a company dedicated to empowering mental health and well-being. The event aimed to help officers manage stress through light exercises and interactive sessions with mental health specialists. The event took place at Santacruz Police Station in Mumbai. The highlights of the event include the team setting up the venue, the arrival of five mental health specialists, and a 1.30-hour session with 20-25 officers. The session involved activities such as music therapy, light meditation exercises, and small relaxing games, along with discussions on handling stress. The policemen actively participated, opened up about their issues, and found relief through the session. Chocolates were distributed at the end to enhance mood regulation. The event had a positive impact, spreading awareness about mental health and receiving praise from both the officers and specialists. The positive feedback has motivated us to consider organizing similar events at other police stations to support more officers in managing their mental well-being.

Activity 3: Aharya

Event Date: 22nd March 2023

Aharya was an event organized by RC NMIMS' ASMSOC in collaboration with the Sports Club of NMIMS' ASMSOC with the vision to promote inclusivity. Aharya event showcased the skills and teamwork of the Wheelchair Basketball team of India, highlighting the achievements and capabilities of athletes with disabilities. The event aimed to encourage the audience to challenge their own assumptions and biases about people with disabilities and to promote inclusivity and accessibility. It provided an opportunity for the wheelchair basketball team to showcase their skills and demonstrate that individuals with disabilities can excel in sports. The event also gave college students the chance to speak with the athletes and learn more about the challenges they faced and how they overcame them. By promoting a more inclusive and accessible society, Aharya had a positive impact on campus and in society at large, inspiring and empowering people with disabilities and promoting a culture of inclusivity and acceptance. It urged the audience to examine their own biases and gain a deeper respect and understanding of people with disabilities.

Activity 4: Aadar 4.0

Date: 12th March, 2023

Aadar 4.0 was the flagship event of Partner's-in-Service, which aimed to bring joy and companionship to elderly individuals in old age homes. The event followed a successful day Aadar 3.0, with several heartwarming activities. The event commenced at 3:30 p.m. at an old age home in Borivali (W). The team arrived promptly with all arrangements in place, including gifts, donations, and games. They began by interacting with the elderly residents, getting to know their life stories and emotions. The team then organized engaging games like housie and pass-in-parcel, accompanied by music and dance performances.

Gift items were awarded to the game winners, and essential items were donated to the elderly residents at the end of the visit. The event concluded on a happy note, with the elderly individuals blessing the team. The team's energy and planning continued as they arrived at the second location in Kandivali (W) at 5:30 p.m., ensuring a day filled with meaningful interactions and heartfelt gestures to brighten the lives of the elderly.

4. Year 2023-24

Activity 1: Art Attack

Date: 3rd September, 2023

The event aimed to provide a much-needed break for members and the team after a taxing week, fostering relaxation and the exploration of their creative talents in the form of heartfelt art pieces for their teachers. The primary objective was to enjoy the process and craft beautiful gifts for their educators. The event unfolded as a delightful and slightly chaotic affair, with participants engaging, laughing, and painting in harmony. The culmination brought forth a collection of exquisite canvases, each intended as a token of appreciation for their beloved teachers. It ignited the spark of creativity, unveiling hidden talents often overshadowed by the daily college and study routine, while simultaneously offering a therapeutic escape. This event enabled participants to craft something genuine and personalized, extending their gratitude to the teachers who inspire them.

Activity 2: Aarohan

Date: 13th September, 2023

"Aarohan," the Gratitude Expression Drive organized by the Rotaract Club of NMIMS' ASMSOC in collaboration with the Social Responsibility Forum (SRF) on September 9th, was a heartfelt tribute to the spirit of gratitude and community. Aligned with the "Swachhta Pakhwada" campaign by the Government of India, the event sought to extend sincere appreciation to the diligent cleaning staff of NMIMS ASMSOC, all the while nurturing a sense of togetherness and empathy among the student body.

The event initiated with a gathering of students, faculty, and the dedicated cleaning staff of NMIMS ASMSOC, providing a platform for open expression of gratitude and sharing of perspectives. The often-unnoticed cleaners shared how NMIMS positively impacted their lives, fostering mutual understanding. In return, students conveyed their heartfelt thanks, acknowledging the pivotal role of the cleaning staff in maintaining a clean and pleasant campus environment.

The event's centerpiece was a collective cleanup effort, uniting students and staff to bridge gaps and cultivate shared responsibility. The day concluded with a gesture of gratitude, offering refreshments to the staff members before they departed. "Aarohan" exemplified the power of appreciation and community bonding.
